

CRISIS INTERVENTION WORKER

Starting at $45,000/year
Full time, 10 month employment
Full benefits, exam required

Completion of 60 credit hours of college study in social/behavioral science; ability to deescalate intense situations; well-organized; ability to effectively communicate orally and by writing; physical condition commensurate with demands of position

BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION SPECIALIST

Starting at $55,000/year
Full time, 10 month employment
Full benefits, exam required

Bachelors degree in Education, Social Work, Sociology, or Psychology*; knowledge of counseling & behavioral assessment techniques; conflict resolution, aggression management, crisis intervention & deescalation; ability to remain clear & decisive in emergency & stressful situations

DISTRICT FAMILY ADVOCATE

Starting at $62,000/year
Full time, 12 month employment
Full benefits, exam required

Masters degree in Education or Social Work*
Skill in collecting, assembling, & analyzing facts & draw conclusions to recommend solutions to problems; organized in presenting facts & opinions in presentations; ability to establish effective working relationships with district personnel, families & students

SCHOOL CASEWORKER

Starting at $65,000
Full time, 10 month employment
Full benefits, exam required

Masters degree in Social Work, Psychology, Counseling*; promotes, preserves or re-establishes family relationships; advocates for individuals & families in crisis; maintains case records on assigned caseloads